SUMMARY

AB 2268 (Muratsuchi) will ensure that the language proficiency of the state’s youngest emerging bilingual students is not evaluated with developmentally inappropriate assessments that could harm their academic and life trajectories.

AB 2268 was introduced on February 8, 2024.

- #AB2268 by [TAG: Asm. Al Muratsuchi] and co-sponsored by [TAG: Early Edge California], [TAG: CABE], and [TAG: Californians Together] would protect the state’s youngest emerging #bilingual students by ensuring they are not negatively impacted by the administration of an assessment ill-suited for their developmental stage. Specifically, AB 2268 seeks to exempt #TK students from being administered either the initial or summative ELPAC for the purposes of English Learner identification.
